Welcome to Chengdu

Chengdu, the capital city of Sichuan province, is Western China's economic and trade center, as well as transportation and communication hub. The surrounding Chengdu Plain is known as the "Country of Heaven" and the "Land of Abundance". Chengdu enjoys a long history of over 2500 years and is endowed with beautiful natural scenery and a rich cultural heritage. The lovely giant pandas are one of the reasons why Chengdu attracts so many travelers. The delicious Sichuan cuisine like hotpot and Kong Pao Chicken also attracts thousands of people.

Chengdu is the first "National Historic and Cultural City", "China's Best Tourist City", "the World's Best Tourist Destination", as well as the "Capital of the World's Gourmet Food" designated by the UNESCO Creative Cities Network. Chengdu is a city full of relaxation and leisure. Now it is one of China's most livable cities, where people from all over the world come to travel, study, work, or even settle down. Chengdu has been carrying the creative and entrepreneurial gene since ancient times. Nowadays, Chengdu is a truly open international city. More than 200 countries and regions around the world share economic and trade ties with Chengdu. Nearly 270 Fortune Global 500 enterprises have established branches here. Moreover, Chengdu is the home to thousands of international students with 56 colleges and universities and 30+ national research institutes.
